

List of Dental Health websites that are good resources for the members of RICSNTA and all school nurses.

Rhode Island Oral Health Commission www.oralhealth.ri.gov

SEALRI www.health.ri.gov/program/sealri/

Teeth First www.teethfirstri.org . Currently, this website has a free, newly published laminated flipchart called "A Partnership Between You and Me' that might be helpful in teaching elementary students about oral health.

Dental Lifeline Network www.dentallifeline.org which also contains information and applications for Donated Orthodontic Services (DOS)

Rhode Island Kids Count www.rikidscount.org

Rhode Island Dental Hygienists' Association www.RIDHA.org. Marie Jones-Bridges is the Executive Director of the Dental Hygienists Association and the newly elected Co-Chair of the Rhode Island Oral Health Commission.

Rhode Island Mission of Mercy www.rimom.org

Rite Smiles (covers eligible children born after May 2000) Their website is part of the Rhode Island Executive Office of Health and Human Service. You must be signed up for Rite Smiles before you can obtain comprehensive information about dentists and their locations.